

NKHAZI'S NEWS

Hello, everyone in the Ibuluma villages.

At Easter I said I would write a newsletter every two months. Because of the work going on here and in your country, that's not been possible, but here is one for Christmas.

You have enjoyed watching the Foundation buildings go up, the football and netball pitches being made for you so you can have fun and games, and now you have a place where you can all get together and enjoy some food.

I know this because Mr Mlambya sends all the photos and the videos of you – laughing, eating, playing games, running, skipping – and these are shown to so many people.

We love to see you enjoying yourselves and we hope that you have a wonderful Christmas party.

From far away, we will all be thinking of you all and will look forward to seeing all the photos and videos.

In the last Newsletter I told you all about Gogo. This time I'm telling you about Sarah and Stuart.

Sarah and Stuart have three sons and a dog. Two of their sons are grown up now (20 and 18 which makes Sarah and Stuart feel old). Their youngest son is 8.

Sarah likes reading and making crafts and Stuart is a drummer in a band. They go to their local church regularly and Stuart plays drums in the praise band.

They love being involved in the Foundation and are really happy to help the people of Malawi. They think about you all every day and enjoy seeing the photos of you all and the work which Levison and the team are doing.

Sarah has been selling her crafts to give money to the Foundation. She says, 'We want you to know that we are working hard for you and care about you all very much.'

Sarah and Stuart took many boxes to Dundee, in Scotland, to the warehouse where they were loaded into a container which was then put on a container ship.

The first container was delayed because the ship ran into huge seas in the Indian Ocean. Some containers went overboard but ours didn't, and many of the items have been or are being given to you.

A second container with 52 boxes should be coming in during January.

Belated 60th Birthday Wishes

When we were planning the opening of the Kitchen, we'd originally thought of 30th October because it was a very special day – the 60th birthday of Gogo's youngest son, David. That date didn't work because it was a week day and so we pushed it to 3rd November as that was the birthday of Dave's wife Cheryl and also their 18th wedding anniversary.

However, between building work, Mr Mlambya's travels to Mzuzu and Lilongwe and boxes arriving, it wasn't possible and so we decided to leave it until Christmas to send our very best wishes to Dave and Cheryl.

Some songs for Christmas

Your Foundation Farm is coming along. Kind people in the UK are raising money to buy goats, chickens and cockerels for the farm. They will produce baby goats (called kids) and chicks so that you will have a Foundation Flock of chickens and a Foundation Herd of goats, producing nice eggs and milk too.

Did you know that Gogo, when he was a young man, used to keep goats on his parents' chicken farm? Here is a photo of William and Margaret. We all used to drink goats' milk, as we did in Cyprus, and it's lovely and very good for you.

One of the songs for children is Old MacDonald had a Farm, and it goes like this.

Mr Mlambya knows the tune. You can make up as many animals and noises as you like but add them all on

Oh Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
And on that farm he had some ducks
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
With a quack quack here
And a quack quack there
Here a quack there a quack
Everywhere a quack quack
Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh

And Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
And on that farm he had some cows
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
With a moo moo here
And a moo moo there
Here a moo there a moo
Everywhere a moo moo
A quack quack here
And a quack quack there
Here a quack there a quack
Everywhere a quack quack
Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh

And Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
And on that farm he had some sheep
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
With a baa baa here
And a baa baa there
Here a baa there a baa
Everywhere a baa baa
A moo moo here
And a moo moo there
Here a moo there a moo
Everywhere a moo moo
A quack quack here
And a quack quack there

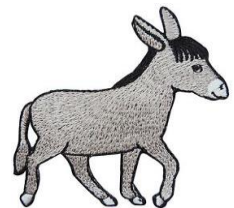

Here a quack there a quack
Everywhere a quack quack
Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh

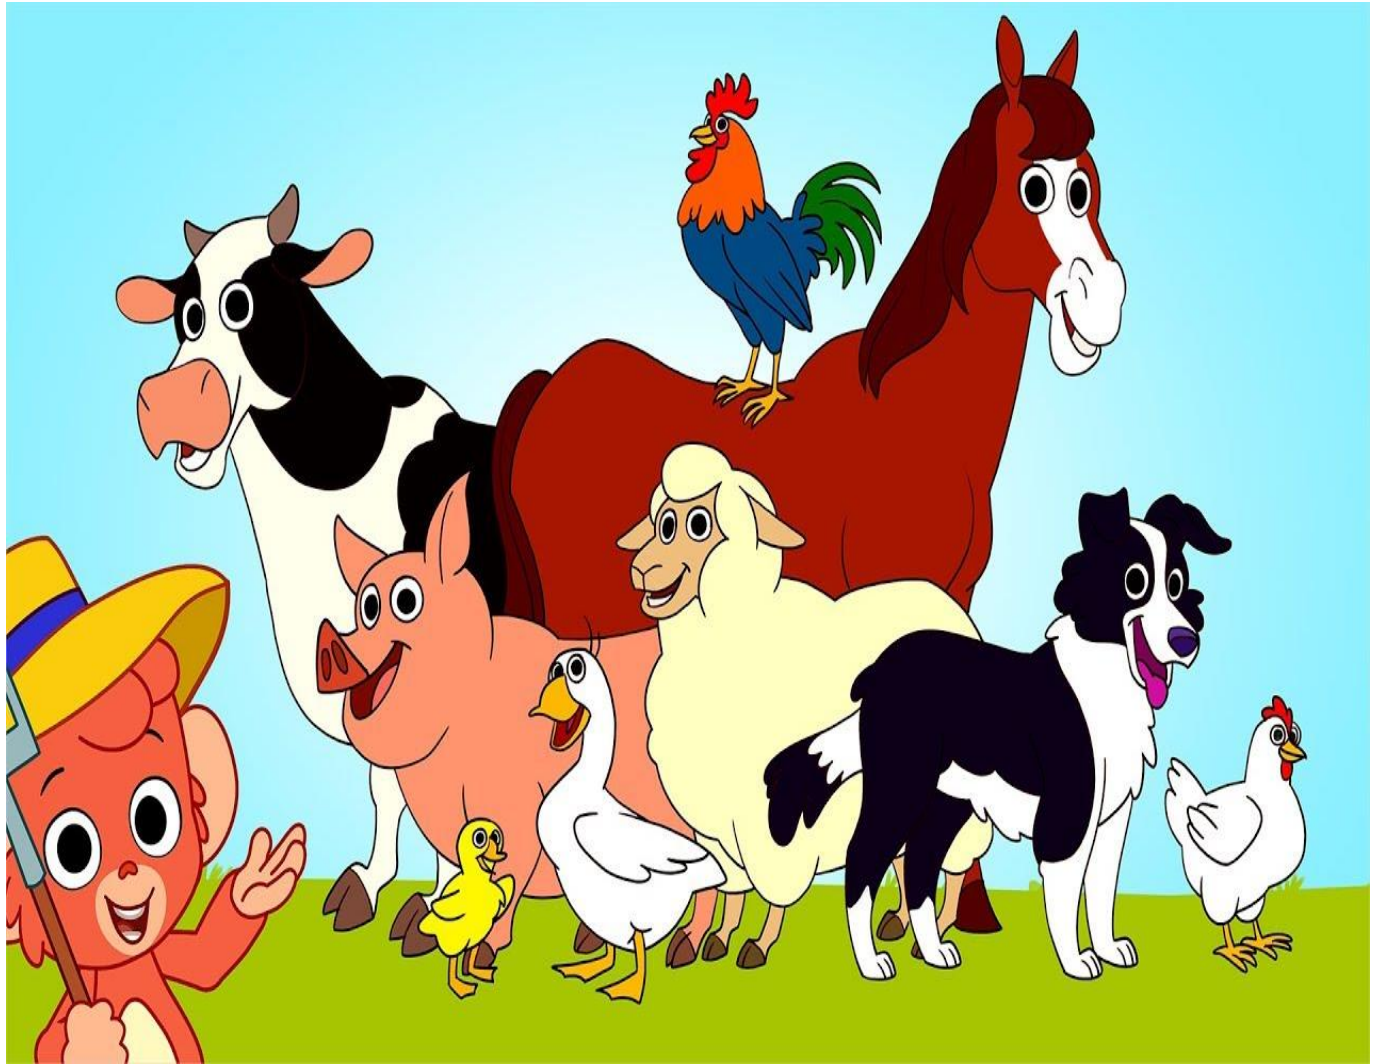

And Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
And on that farm he had some dogs
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
With a woof woof here
And a woof woof there
Here a woof there a woof
Everywhere a woof woof
A baa baa here
And a baa baa there
Here a baa there a baa
Everywhere a baa baa
A moo moo here
And a moo moo there
Here a moo there a moo
Everywhere a moo moo
A quack quack here
And a quack quack there
Here a quack there a quack
Everywhere a quack quack
Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh

And Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
And on that farm he had some donkeys
Ee-i, ee-i, oh
With a ee-aw here
And a ee-aw there
Here a ee there a aw
Everywhere a ee-aw
A woof woof here
And a woof woof there
Here a woof there a woof
Everywhere a woof woof
A baa baa here
And a baa baa there
Here a baa there a baa
Everywhere a baa baa
A moo moo here
And a moo moo there
Here a moo there a moo
Everywhere a moo moo
A quack quack here
And a quack quack there
Here a quack there a quack
Everywhere a quack quack
Old MacDonald had a farm
Ee-i, ee-i, oh

Here is another song which is very popular and again, Mr Mlambya knows the words and the actions; he will teach you. I have adapted the words of the song to include people you know.

Baby Shark

Let's go hunt, doo doo doo doo doo doo
Let's go hunt!

Run away,...

Away In A Manger

[Verse 1]

Away in a manger, no crib for His bed
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head
The stars in the bright sky looked down where He lay
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay

[Verse 2]

The cattle are lowing, the poor Baby awakes
But little Lord Jesus, no crying He makes
I love Thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the night sky
And stay by my side till morning is nigh

[Verse 3]

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask Thee to stay
Close by me forever, and love me I pray
Bless all the dear children in Thy tender care
And take us to Heaven to live with Thee there

HAPPY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE
